I understand that anybody can sign up to drive and CFELC is unable to perform any background checks on people who use the carpool service. As with any other environment where I meet new people, I will take steps to keep myself and my possessions safe and accept that CFELC cannot be responsible if anything goes wrong.
I understand that CFELC cannot guarantee that I will find appropriate matches through the carpool service, or that any agreed ride will occur. I take full responsibility for any cost related to using the carpool service.
I understand that this service is open to any driver or rider - no matter what their personal background or beliefs. To help make sure that both the driver, driver assistant and rider feel comfortable and safe, I promise that I will not discuss politics during the journey.
